Well done to all of the homelearners who have continued working hard from home, despite the draw of the sunshine luring them outside! The 'social zoom meetings' that staff are hosting have been exciting and varied over the last week, with my most memorable being Mrs Parkyn's zoom! All of the children who joined had to prepare a fascinating fact about animals of their choosing, they were also invited to bring their pets along too, so we had a daegu, a cat and a dog, but Billy trumped us all, and lead us through to the kitchen where has dad was poised with the largest Zoom guest of all.... Duchess their beautiful horse! It absolutely made Mrs Parkyn's day, and I am sure it will be one of her most memorable moments of her time with us at Shap School!

A message from Mrs. Caton: Next week we will be drawing the 100 club winners up to the end of this term which is very exciting as there will be 11 Winners! However, please note, you will only be entered into the draw dates if you have paid subs up to and inclusive of that date. You cannot be included into any draws in which your subs are still outstanding. The office will be open on Tuesday 30 June for the last chance to pay subs up to date and be entered into all draws. Should your 100 club balances still be outstanding when we return in September, you will be removed from the Subscription list. The Governors really do appreciate the help you give by supporting our 100 club but in order for it to work, we need people to ensure their subscriptions are paid to date or in advance of any draws held. Thankyou."

Mrs Turner has been delighted with the poetry she has received this week, an example of this is Brooke's Acrostic Poem below:

Fern Acrostic

Ferns last form is golden brown, Each frond goes crispy,

Red ferns glisten golden in the morning dew, Now fern is ready to curl up for winter and breathe new life in spring.

By Brooke Carson

Another piece of artwork that wowed us this week was by Megan. Can you tell that it was inspired by Andy Warhol?
